RASH OF PIMPLES ITCHED TERRIBLY

On Face and Body. Spread to Scalp. Cuticura Heals.

I discovered a rest of pimples breaking out on my face and body and the itching became so terrible it caused me to lose long of sleep. The pimples began to a press all over my face and even to my scalp.

I read an advertisement for Cuncurs Soap and Ointment and thought I would try a free sample. Sceing how my skin improved I purchased a cake of Cuticurs Soap and a hox of Cuticurs Oin ment which healed the (Signed) Miss Henrietta Welch, 134 Cannon St. New York, N. Y. NEWSY NOTES TELL WHAT'S HAPPENING IN THE MILL TOWN

Largest Attendance to Date Features Friday's Baby Clinic.

SEVENTEEN ARE PRESENTED

Total Registration to Date Is 75; Much Accded in the Way of Equipment and Dependence is Placed on U. B. MISSIONARY Public; Other News of the Day.

Special to The Courier. SCOTTDARE, April 9 - The baby clinic held in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday wan the best since the clinic was opened. Seventeen new babies were registered, making a total of 74. Miss Margaret Flynn of Creensburg had charge of the clinic and was assisted Mrs. McCuhn of Greensburg. Dr. 1. Kerr was the physician who gave his services for the day.

A canvass was made of the town to set a complete census of children under six years of age, and the person, who have put their time and efforth forth to make a better clinic would appreciate very much an effort any women or mothers of Scottdale would put forth to visit the clinic. In-zerost is lacking in getting equipment for the clinic, but it is hoped that the people will follow the example of other towns where Bible classes, mayors and influential business men have seen that necessary funds were provided.

Aid Society Meeting.

The United Brethren Missionary society held its regular monthly meeting at the church, with Miss Minnie Pyle as leader. Mrs. Albert Keister led the devotions. Mrs. John Brown-field read a paper, "Our First Mission-Field." Special to The Courter.

MFOUNT PLEASANT, April 9.-The Missionary members of the ladies' society of the United Brethren church were guests of Mrs. S. M. Crosby yes terday afternoon at the 43rd anniver-sary of the society. The society was organized April 8, 1878, by Mrs. Bil-helmer, a missionary from Africa, with 27 charter members, seven of whom are living. Three of the charter members were present, Mrs. A. K. Yothers, Mrs. S. K. Ebersole and Mrs. Emma Stauffer. Mrs. A. T. Collins, a granddaughter of one of the charter mem-bers, read the first constitution and called the roll, Mrs. Sarah Hood con-veyed greetings to the charter members and presented each with a carna tion. A response was given by Mys. Yothers.

A paper prepared in 1853 by Mrs. Rebecca Gibbs was read by her granddaughter, Mrs. Edith King Page The earliest life membership on record was presented to Mrs. Virginia Dick, grandmother of Mrs. Irene Shupe Collins, in 1865, seven years following the organization of a mis-sion board. Miss Nancy Truval read the memorial, a fitting tribute to the 45 members who had died. Mrs. C. W. Hendrickson sang a very pleasing solo to close the memorial. Solos were sung by Misess Catherine Loar and Miss Minnie Mac Crosby.

Thirty-seven members were present Mrs. T. C; Harper from Latrobo was Refreshments and a social hour closes
